PACKAGING AND HANDLING OF DECK FREIGHT

Any shipment not deemed to be packed or protected to the satisfaction of the agent in this carrier would be accepted for transportation at the shipper's risk. The shipper will be notified when the shipment is accepted for transportation and a notation to this effect will be made on the freight bill. The carrier will not be liable for any damage/lost/missing to a said shipment while in its custody and reasonable care is used in handling and transportation. KIFBL will not be held liable for any object or material that is being stored for proper pickup for said material or object. Rates in this tariff do not include refrigeration or specialized handling for any sort of perishable commodities. It is the consignor and consignee's responsibility to provide proper packaging and a timely pickup from carrier's dock and delivery to carrier's dock so that perishable product is properly protected.
