Description of Project, including detail of compressor stations and other facilities

Concurrent with the submittal of an As-Built Notice of Construction report, each operator must submit information about the route of the constructed pipeline. The preferred method of submittal is an electronic copy of all digital geographically referenced data used to prepare system maps, including specific locations of compressor stations and other pipeline facilities. If such data is unavailable, operators must submit maps and other information sufficient to fully describe the route of the constructed pipeline.
