17-1398-EL-POR The Dayton Power and Light Company (Entry seeking comments) Approval moved and seconded, vote 4-0.

Chairman Randazzo noted that this entry is requesting comments on how we can wind down the energy efficiency mandates, consistent with the General Assembly’s direction in House Bill 6.
Chairman Randazzo apologized to the complainant for the extended duration of this matter and further states his desire to evaluate and find an appropriate remedy. The Chairman further identified that the record indicated unwillingness on the part of the utility to take ownership of the problem at issue here. Commissioner Conway stated that he agreed as there appears to be communication issues between the customer and utility that are worth investigating.
