

Electric Service Areas of Ohio

As of Aug. 1, 2017

|                        |                             |                               |                            |                          |
|------------------------|-----------------------------|-------------------------------|----------------------------|--------------------------|
| AEP Ohio               | Darke Rural Electric        | Hancock-Wood Electric         | Midwest Electric           | Pioneer Electric         |
| Adams Rural Electric   | Dayton Power & Light        | Holmes-Wayne Electric         | Midwest Energy Cooperative | South Central Power      |
| Buckeye Rural Electric | Duke Energy Ohio            | Licking Rural Electrification | North Central Electric     | The Illuminating Company |
| Butler Rural Electric  | Firelands Electric          | Logan County Electric         | North Western Electric     | Toledo Edison            |
| Carroll Electric       | Frontier Power              | Lorain-Medina Rural Electric  | Ohio Edison                | Tricounty Rural Electric |
| Consolidated Electric  | Guernsey-Muskingum Electric | Mid-Ohio Energy               | Paulding-Putnam Electric   | Union Rural Electric     |
|                        |                             |                               | Washington Electric        |                          |

Data maintained by the PUCO. Electric service areas, or certified territories, are geographic regions within which an electric distribution utility (EDU) has the obligation and exclusive right to provide electric service. EDUs do not include municipalities that maintain their own electric system.